I understand that signing this application legally obligates me to follow the rules and regulations of the E.Y. Berry Library-Learning Center. It is understood that if I borrow the books or materials which are returned on time, with no damage, there will be no charges for the use. Those books or materials must be returned to the Library for use by BHSU students or staff. After a period of seven days I may again borrow the same books or materials. If I fail to return the books or materials on time, I shall pay the fine promptly. If the books or materials are damaged or lost, I shall be responsible for the cost of the books or materials and a processing fee. If the Library is not notified of the damage or loss on or before the due date of the books or materials, I will also incur a fine. I shall pay the costs promptly to insure that the services can continue to be provided at no cost to the non-BHSU student or employee.
